Songs
of
THETA KAPPA NU
Fraternity

FOREWORD

The need of a Theta Kappa Nu Song Book has long been apparent and it was to this end that a song contest was conducted. It has, however, taken no little time to collect sufficient songs of merit to make their publication in book form worthwhile.

In the compilation of this book, the fact that it is a first edition has been kept clearly in mind; and it is believed that a new and larger edition must follow within a few years. Accordingly no attempt has been made to recognize fine distinctions in the selection of material, but rather all songs thought to have any chance of winning the approval of the Fraternity were included.

The thanks of the Fraternity are extended to those who have responded to the appeal for poetic and musical contributions, and whose compositions appear herewith. May their loyal response stimulate others to emulate them.

It is hoped that this first edition of the collected songs of Theta Kappa Nu will not only encourage the composition of more songs, but will stimulate chapter singing. Let us sing at the dinner table, at the chapter meetings, at the smokers, rush parties, and banquets; in fact, let us sing every time the opportunity presents itself, for a singing chapter is bound to be a live chapter.

Give these songs a thorough trial; and if you find the book inadequate in any respect, write something yourself, and send it to the Central Office.
