

Words by DON LYBARGER, Pa. Alpha, '19

Come, Boys, Together

A SONG OF THETA KAPPA NU

35

Tune — Borrowed

Oh, come boys, to-gether, and sing once a - gain Of the pride that is When we first came to col-lege we were green as could be, And were help-less young
The path that we trod was no "cinch" to be sure, But for hold-ness of
We have gone the same way as our broth-ers of yore, Who knocked and gained When the hal-cy-on days on our cam-pus are der, And we-gath-er to - ours as fra - ter - ni - ty men; Be - fore we de - part there's one freshmen with no fra - ter - ni - ty. But now we pro - claim, and you'll man-ner we soon found a cure. Some times we skipped class-es, but en-trance at (*) door. We have borne the same chain and the geth-er as good fellows no more, Then we'll fare forth to add to the thing we must do: Let us join in the praise of old The-ta Kap-pa Nu grant it is true, That they made us all men in old The-ta Kap-pa Nu note well this cue: We learned all the les-sons of The-ta Kap-pa Nu same emblem, too As the pi-o-neer "Elev-en" of The-ta Kap-pa Nu list of "Who's Who" The names of more brothers of The-ta Kap-pa Nu

CHORUS Air in 2nd Tenor.

Come, boys, to - geth - er, once more to - geth - er, Let's pledge that we will stand stead-fast and true: For we are broth - ers, just like all oth - ers, Who are most loy - al to old The-ta Kappa Nu