As film - y hues of na - ture o - ver spread by mas - ter hand
To live a - gain those youthful dreams of deeds which were to be,
Mak - ing rich each heart pul - sa - tion, and the earth it self to shine
With vi - sions pure as springtime, and with hope as eve - ning's star,

Are but mo - men - ta - ry breez - es by the paint - er's spir - it fanned,
As thin - ly veiled they wan - der from the realms of mem - o - ry;
With vi - brant em - a - na - tions from each changing year's de sign;
And hon - or of our emb - lem as the guid - ing light a - far,

So the light of in - spir - a - tion, like a ha - lo 'round us shed,
Our char - ac - ter is strengthened by this ra - di - at - ing glow,
Fra - ter - nal spir - it, clasp our hands, in faith and friendship hold
Old time may ev - er find us true to THE - TA KAP - PA NU,

Makes warm the hearth of broth - er - hood as gent - ly back were led.
And per - me - ates the sift - ing sands as year by year they flow.
That thoughts of ab - sent broth - ers may a - wake the scenes of old.
And read - y with a might - y "HAIL" to bear her pre - cepts through.
